

Supplementary Figure 1. The Danish pedigree showing generations 1 to 3. The earliest known case I-1 is shown in the centre. Individuals in red are affected and those in grey are unaffected or unknown. Circles and squares represent females and males respectively. Bars going through these shapes indicate that the family member is deceased.